

XM Satellite is one of the most important services to come around in a long time. This current petition is just another example of the government trying to micro manage and control something that it has no business in.